Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002

Request

Please find below our response to your correspondence dated 10 April, in which you made the following request under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

“Can you please supply me with details of all speed fines/penalties for the last 3 years which include:

date, Location, speed limit, Type (i.e camera or mobile unit), vehicle speed, fine, penalty if any”.

Response

The Scottish Police Authority has considered your request for information and is able to provide the following.

The Scottish Police Authority does not hold the information requested.¹

The Authority provides governance and oversight of policing in Scotland and does not hold information on operational policing matters.

Information may be available by contacting Police Scotland at foi@scotland.police.uk

Also, the Scottish Government publish official statistics on crimes and offences recorded by the police in Scotland which may be of interest.

Right to Review

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome, you can ask us to review our response. If you want us to carry out a review, please let us know within 40 working days. You must specify the reason for your dissatisfaction and submit your request to foi@spa.police.uk or by letter to Scottish Police Authority, 1 Pacific Quay, Glasgow, G51 1DZ.

If you remain dissatisfied after review, you can appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months. You can apply online, by email to enquiries@itspublicknowledge.info or by letter to Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS.

Should you wish to appeal against the Commissioner's decision, you can appeal to the Court of Session, only if you think the law has not been applied correctly.

This response will be posted to our Disclosure Log after seven days.

Yours faithfully
