

LETTER SENT BY EMAIL ONLY

4 April 2025

FOI Ref 2024/25-005

Request

Your request for information dated 3 April 2025 is copied below.

1. Does your force maintain a central record of instances where police officers exceed speed limits under legal exemptions?
2. Are officers required to justify each instance of exceeding speed limits in any official report or system?
3. Do police fleet vehicles have onboard tracking systems that automatically record speed data?
4. Does your force publish any statistical reports on the frequency or circumstances of emergency speed exemptions?

Response

The Scottish Police Authority has considered your request under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act (FOISA).

The Authority does not hold the information requested.<sup>1</sup>

The Authority provides governance and oversight of policing in Scotland and does not hold information on operational policing matters.<sup>2</sup>

Information may be available by contacting Police Scotland at foi@scotland.police.uk

Right to Review

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of your request you can ask for a review within 40 working days. You must specify the reason for your dissatisfaction and submit your request by email to foi@spa.police.uk or by letter to Scottish Police Authority, 1 Pacific Quay, Glasgow, G51 1DZ.

If you remain dissatisfied after review, you can appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months. You can apply online, by email to enquiries@foi.scot or by letter to Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS.

Should you wish to appeal against the Commissioner's decision, you can appeal to the Court of Session, only if you think the law has not been applied correctly.

This response will be posted to our Disclosure Log after seven days.

Yours faithfully

Scottish Police Authority
